

HELP WANTED! CITY HAS JOBS TO GIVE ALL COMERS

Central Employment Bureau
Opens Up and Promptly
Discovers Work.

IDLERS CHUCKED OUT.

Snow Storm Gives Unique
Agency Busy Sendoff
Right Off Reel.

Father Knickerbocker at 9 o'clock today stepped down from his lofty perch, put on his hat and coat and taking the honest, but hungry and unemployed man by the hand, said: "Come on, I'll get you a job somehow. If you're on the level and really want to work, the Knickerbocker family is going to stick you in somewhere. But, if you're a stranger from Spokane or Houston, just beat it back Westward."

That's just the way the new Central Employment Bureau at No. 27 Lafayette street, half way between the Municipal Building and the Criminal Courts Building, opened its doors this morning. This bureau is going to find you a job if you really need a job, if you want to work, and if there isn't a fleet of hook worms strangling your family tree.

The plan of the Central Bureau is simply this: There are 748 private employment agencies in New York. Each of these will call up the Central Bureau twice a day, just giving its license number, instead of its name. For instance, License No. 765 reports that it has applications for three jobs and describes them—or it has five jobs to be filled and describes them. BUREAU WILL SEND YOU OFF TO GET JOB.

At the end of the day the central city bureau will publish in daily newspapers the license numbers and the kinds of jobs vacant or desired. If you want a job, you'll take the clipping, go to the bureau and show the number. The name of the agency will then be disclosed to you. The central bureau will keep track of you and learn how you made out.

If you're one of those men who start out looking for a job 365 days in the year with a prayer on your lips that you won't find one, steer clear of the city agency. They'll have your number in about a week.

"The snow was a benediction," said City Chamberlain Brucere, who is looking after the employment agency. "Why? Because it took the load of applicants off our hands and let us get a real start. Most of the real, honest, hungry unemployed men who are physically fit are hovering snow today."

When the doors of the Lafayette street central bureau opened, with Augustus Regan and Matthew J. Dobbin in charge, about sixty men, some young, some old and tired or middle aged and indifferent entered. All the young men were neat and well dressed, well fed and cheerful looking.

In ten minutes Regan got a phone message. It was a call for fifty snow shovellers at Street Cleaning Stable R. No. 349 Livingston street, and Stable M. No. 59 Sullivan street.

OLD MEN EAGER TO WORK IN THE SNOW.

"Here's work right away, boys," said the cheerful Regan. The old and the middle aged men got up and walked out eagerly with notes of introduction to street cleaning bosses. The younger men hung back.

"Are you fellows hungry?" asked Regan.

"Yes," from several.

"Out of work long?"

"About a year," from several.

"Old folks depending on you?"

"Yes," from some.

"And you won't shovel snow?"

"Our shoes are too thin," said one.

Three had shins.

"What would you like to do?" asked Regan.

No one answered. Regan went to the door. Dobbin followed him. "Get!" said Regan. "I'll send for you when there is a vacancy in the Presidency of some railroad. This isn't a pool parlor nor a clubhouse." The real hungry and poor began to drift in at 10 o'clock. You got them at a glance. All were shy and very reserved as compared with the cocksure and confident youths who were hustled out after having refused to become snow-shovelers.

Inasmuch as the greater part of the army of the unemployed will be busy for at least eight days removing the snow, the city's clearing house does not expect to be overworked for at least two weeks. Two hundred men were put to work up to noon today, however. When the snows have joined those of yesteryears and the earnings of the army spent, then will come the real opening of the Lafayette street clearing house.

COMPTROLLER UPHOLDS INTERBORO CONTRACTS

Prendergast Says Third-Tracking Agreements Are Not Outside the Law.

Comptroller Prendergast said today that the Interborough Rapid Transit Company is not outside the law when it lets contracts of its own accord for third tracking on the Second, Third and Ninth avenue elevated lines. Inasmuch as the job is to cost something between $16,000,000 and $18,000,000, it was thought that the Interborough should have consulted the Public Service Commission and obtained its approval of the awards as it would in subway work under the dual system.

MRS. BOND'S CHURCH STANDING NOT AFFECTED.

Twice Rev. Licklider evaded the question whether Mrs. Bond was a member "in good standing" of the Olivet Church, but pressed he replied that, strictly speaking, she was not; that, though a charter member, she had not been active for two years, but that her name was still on the rolls. He said the Bond-Gore incident had not affected her standing in the church.

LOST HER STREET CLOTHES AT MASQUERADE BALL

Girl in Boys Suit Suffering in Street When Policeman
Picks Her Up.

Policeman Shaughnessy of the Adams street station saw a slender figure in a blue serge sack suit staggering along Adams street, near Myrtle avenue, this morning, and thinking it was some youth eloped overcame by the cold he hurried to him. To his surprise the "youth" turned out to be a very pretty brunette who burst into tears at the policeman's first question and sobbed out:

"I'm fr-freezing. I w-w-want to a b-ball in Sangerbun Hall I last night and I lost my cloak check and some one s-s-stole my c-c-cloak and m-m-my furs, and, oh dear, I d-d-don't know what to do."

Shaughnessy took the girl to the Adams street station, learning on the way that she was Miss Mary Donato of No. 82 Prospect street and that she had worn her brother's clothes as a masquerade costume. When she found her check gone she waited around until almost 5 o'clock, when all the other dancers had gone, hoping that her coat would be there, but whoever had found the check evidently had claimed the cloak and furs. Then she was afraid to go home and had wandered about the streets.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The annoyance and surprise expressed by the British press at the appointment of Henry W. Thornton of the Long Island Railroad as General Manager of the Great Eastern Railway of England were declared by Mr. Thornton himself to-day to be perhaps natural but unjustified, as he personally felt that the English railway managers were capable.

POLICE WATCH TOKIO MOBS.

Armed With Sabres They Guard
Parliament Against New Outbreak.

TOKIO, Feb. 14.—The Japanese Government to-day took extensive measures for the maintenance of order in the capital and for the suppression of disturbances in connection with the demonstrations of protest against the increase of taxation. A line of police armed with sabres was drawn up around the Parliament Building and several Opposition newspaper editors were arrested on the charge of inciting the mob to riot.

In the House of Peers an interpellation was addressed to the Government in connection with the naval scandal, and in the course of the debate Baron Kanjiro Den censured Admiral Baron Saito, Minister of Marine, for not investigating the matter earlier.

LOCKED IN A TOOL BOX AFTER HORSEWHIPPING, THEN RUN OUT OF TOWN

Missouri Farmers Race Accused
Man Away on a Locomotive
—Police Seek Him.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 14.—Friends of Jersey Malone, a railway employee, said to have been sent out of Springfield locked in the tool box of a locomotive after a committee of ten fathers had horsewhipped him for alleged improper conduct, still were searching for him early to-day. The police said no action would be taken in the matter until definite information as to Malone's whereabouts could be gathered.

Members of the vigilance committee told the police yesterday that Malone while out of work had been provided with meals by the wife of a fellow employee in the St. Louis and San Francisco shops. They said they put him in a locomotive tool box Thursday night.

"We did not injure him seriously and he probably will be heard from soon," said a member of the committee to-day. "While we were waiting for the locomotive we took him into a store and built a fire to keep him warm. The tool box also is a warm place."

Market Closing—Prices softened in the latter part of the second hour. Rock Island preferred sold down to a new low record, at 10 1/2. N. Y. Central sold off, but recovered and closed with a net gain of 1/4, at 54. General list closed steady, showing fractional changes with few exceptions. Total sales, 155,877 shares.

Opening on the stormiest day of the winter was dull. Prices, however, were firm generally at advances of a small fraction. U. S. Steel was more active than the general market, although dealings in that were rather meagre. First sale was block of 600 shares at 64 1/2, off 1/4, with 1,000 at 64 3/4. Rock Island preferred opened unchanged. The issue seemed to have reached a level at which it was not affected by the information that it would be assessed probably $10 a share in the readjustment, and that outstanding issue would be scaled down. Official announcement of reorganization plan is not likely to come for several weeks.

First half hour's trading was desultory and about all that could be said was that there was a market. Attendance in brokers' offices was very slim, and the attendance on the floor was more so. American Ice stock made a new high record for the year, at 25 1/2, on showing equivalent to over 1 percent earned and expectation that dividends may be resumed during the year. Market became fairly active toward end of first hour, and was quite strong. General Electric advanced one point. Rumor was strong, advancing 1-4 to 18 1/4.

It was reported that the committee was meeting with fair success in its campaign for agreement to extension of notes. N. Y. Central sold up to 90, an advance of 1/4. Canadian Pacific sold off 3 points to 21 1/4, and Rock Island issues were under pressure.

From Winter Chills Come Kidney Ills

Chilly, damp, changing weather is hard on the kidneys. Even more irritating are colds, grip, pneumonia, tonsillitis, quinsy and other infections. The kidneys get congested and inflamed, and this causes backache and disordered kidney action. Though serious in its later stages, kidney disease is not hard to conquer if a good kidney remedy is used when the first signs of kidney trouble are noticed. The best recommended kidney remedy in the world is Doan's Kidney Pills. You hear it everywhere. Get a box.

Are YOUR Kidneys Weak?

HOW TO TELL.—First read the testimony and learn what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for others. Then if you have back aches, if sharp pains strike you when stooping or lifting; if you are lame in the morning, tire too easily; if you have dismy spells and are nervous, despondent and inclined to worry over trifles; if the kidney secretions are highly colored and full of sediment, if passages are too frequent, scanty, painful or scalding, it is likely that your kidneys need quick attention. If a sample of the urine, after standing 24 hours, shows a sandy, brick-dust like sediment settled at the bottom of the receptacle, there is evidence enough to suspect the kidneys.

GREATER NEW YORK PEOPLE TESTIFY

E. 137th Street (Bronx)	W. 84th Street
Mrs. Anna Breen, 409 E. 137th St., Bronx, New York City, N. Y., says: "During the winter I had an attack of kidney trouble, brought on by a cold. I suffered from tired feeling through my back, with a steady dull ache. Stooping or lifting made the trouble worse. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills, I began taking them and the first few doses relieved me. I didn't have to use a whole box before I was rid of the trouble. The cure has lasted for over a year."	Mrs. David Edwin, 188 W. 84th St., New York City, N. Y., says: "I was suddenly stricken with sharp pains through my kidneys and the doctor said I had kidney trouble. I was sick about for eight days and I gradually got worse. I didn't think I could last much longer. I passed about five gravel stones. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and did. I soon got better and two boxes cured me after everything else had failed."
Ralph Street (Brooklyn)	10th Avenue
F. Stewart, merchant, 157 Ralph St., Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "Three years ago I suffered from pains in my kidneys and back. The kidney secretions were unusual, contained a great deal of sediment and passed too often. As soon as I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I got better. The pains in my back and kidneys left me and the kidney secretions cleared up. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills restored me to good health and I believe I am permanently cured for I haven't suffered since."	Andrew B. Clow, 497 10th Ave., New York City, N. Y., says: "Kidney trouble in my case had become chronic. At my work I am on my feet most of the time and this made the trouble worse. I had awful backaches and the kidney secretions passed irregularly. Whenever I caught cold, it settled in my kidneys and I knew that something must be done. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they fixed me up all right. I haven't had to take any kidney medicine in over a year."
